

 The first step is to open Microsoft Forms and select either a 'New Quiz' or 'New Form' here	1  The screenshot shows the Microsoft Forms homepage. At the top, there are three buttons: 'New Quiz', 'New Form' (highlighted with a red box), and 'Quick import'. Below these buttons, there is a section titled 'Explore templates' with two cards: 'Workflow Solution' and 'Quiz'.

 Type Form description	5  The screenshot shows the MS Forms editor interface. The 'Form description' field is now empty and ready for text input, still highlighted with a pink border. The 'Quick start with' button remains below it.
